GREEK CROSS

This is an ancient shape for a cross which is still a favorite in many parts of the world. It originated from the Chi Rho, a popular monogram for Christ made of the first two letters of "CRISTOS," greek for "Christ." Eventually the appendages to the letters were dropped, leaving a cross of four equal lengths.

CLADDAGH CROSS

Richard Joyce, captured by pirates the week he was to have been married, made the original Claddagh, so he would never forget the girl he loved. The heart is for love; the crown, loyalty; and the hands, friendship.

TAU

A letter of the alphabet in both Hebrew and Greek which represented the totality of a person's life and came to symbolize the cross of crucifixion. St. Francis of Assisi was especially fond of it as a symbol, signing correspondence with it in place of his own signature.

GENUINE WIDOW'S MITE COIN JEWELRY

These special pendants (below) hold a "widow's mite," an excavated coin, in use in first century Palestine, immortalized by Jesus' words about the generous widow: He [Jesus] looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, and he saw a poor widow put in two copper coins (mites). And he said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the others; they gave from their surplus, but she put in all that she had to live on."

Orthodox Crosses | 14KT GOLD AND STERLING SILVER

Also known as Byzantine crosses or St. Olga Crosses are worn by Eastern Orthodox Christians, both Greek and Russian. In addition to the slanted footrest, they feature the “IC” and “XC”, which are shorthand in Greek for Jesus Christ. The “IC” is the first and last letter of ISOUS (Jesus); the squiggly line indicating that this is an abbreviation. The “XC” is the first and last letter of CHRISTOS (Christ).

The R16247 has bluefire enamel on the front. The R16247 and R41409 have inscribed “Protect and Save” on the back in Russian, which makes these crosses especially meaningful to Russian Orthodox Christians.

ST. ANDREW CROSS

Named after the Apostle Andrew, patron saint of Russia, Scotland and patron of the Patriarch of Constantinople. The top bar symbolizes the placard on which was written the charge against Jesus. The middle bar is where the hands were nailed. There are several explanations for the distinctive lower bar. Some say that it calls to mind the "X" shaped cross on which Andrew was crucified. Others say that the saint preached with a three bar cross, using the lower bar to illustrate that "those on the right side of Christ will go up to heaven, those on His left will descend into hell." Still others say that the slanted bar represents what was originally a support device on crosses of crucifixion, put there to increase the discomfort of the victim; the slant developed to suggest an isometric view of it, and was eventually lowered to suggest a footrest.

JERUSALEM CROSS

Taken from the armorial trappings of the Kingdom of Jerusalem.

PHOS ZOE

In Greek, literally, "Light and Life." It beautifully describes Jesus Christ, the Light and Life of the world.

DAGMAR CROSS

This Byzantine-style cross features several holy images: to the left, then clockwise, the Blessed Virgin, St. Basil, St. John the Baptist and St. John Chrysostom. In the center is Jesus Christ as ruler of the world; on the back is Christ crucified. The cross became especially associated with Queen Dagmar (pronounced "dowmer") of Denmark, endearing it to the Danes, all the people of Scandinavia, and the Germans (the queen was from Bohemia). Not surprisingly, it has come to be a special symbol for Lutherans.

CARA VACA CROSS

In Cara Vaca, Spain in 1231, a priest imprisoned during the Moor occupation was instructed by his captors to say Mass to satisfy their curiosity. The priest began, but had to stop when he realized a cross—a required element—was not present.

The captors grew angry at the delay, but then, through an open window, a cross arrived: the Pectoral Cross of the Patriarch of Jerusalem, miraculously transported to the site by two angels.

Bracelets | 14KT GOLD AND STERLING SILVER

The form of a prayer known as a novena (Latin for “nine”) has always enjoyed the favor of the church. The first novena was held in the Upper room, where the apostles and the Blessed Virgin prayed fervently during the nine days between Christ’s ascension into heaven and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Nine special devotions are honored in our Novena Saint’s Bracelet: St. Raphael, St. Christopher, St. Anthony, St. Joseph, The Miraculous Medal, the Scapular, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

MIZ PAH

Commemorates the agreement between Laban and Jacob as told in Gen 31: 49. Today, it is presented as a coin split in two. Friends each wear half as a token of friendship.

MENORAH

A seven-branched Menorah (the name simply means candelabra) was the centerpiece of the Tabernacle during the Israelites' 40-year journey through the wilderness, and of the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. Menorahs of six, seven and eight branches are very common, and are popular symbols of Judaism.

MEZUZAH

A miniature replica of the Mezuzah that is often fixed to the doorpost of a Jewish home. The first two paragraphs of the "Shema" (Deut 6:4-9; 11:13-21) are inscribed on a parchment and inserted into the container. The small jewelry version is worn around the neck and is a symbol of Jewish Identity and a reminder of God's presence everywhere.

Angel Lapel Pins | 14KT GOLD AND STERLING SILVER

ANGELS Most of the world's religions teach the reality of angels. Pure spirits created by God, full of wisdom, power, beauty and truth. Angel means "messenger," indicating that God often used them (and uses them) to communicate his plans to the people of earth. Scripture teaches that everyone has a guardian angel, whose job is to watch over them and guide them safely to Heaven. (October 2)

Chastity Rings® & Pendants | 14KT, 10KT GOLDS, AND STERLING SILVER

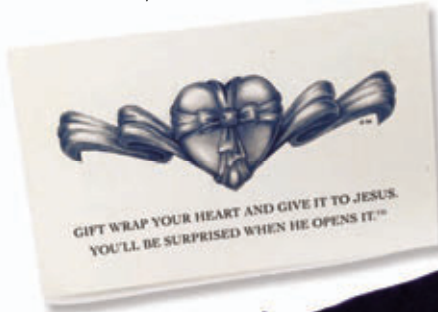

MY GIFT WRAPPED HEART®

My gift is a secret, hid beneath this golden foil and bow.
My father wrapped it in His Love for only one to know.

My gift is very precious and the wrapping's precious too;
The one without the other spoils the mystery and the clue.

For though the pressure's strong my God is with me from the start and He'll be there with me when I give my love.

My Gift Wrapped Heart.

THE RUGGED CROSS®

Manly was His virtue. Steady was His gaze. "Who is this that even stormy wind and sea obeys?"

Heavy was His burden. Rugged was His way. It hurts to know my sins increased the price He had to pay.

In full, indeed. He paid it; now I can be free, to live the Life He carefully selected just for me.

I know it won't be easy. I'll feel the push and shove. He, too felt it, so I'd feel the power of His Love.

I wear a Rugged Cross to show His Love is tried and true. He's won the fight and earned the right to tell me what to do.

Now when I'm tried and tempted I'll remember, He is Boss; and lovingly remember He, too, wore a Rugged Cross.

Chastity Ring® | 14KT, 10KT GOLD AND STERLING SILVER

CHASTITY RINGS®

This ring's a special symbol of the promise that I've made,
With your help, O Lord, I know it's glow will never fade.

With your help, O Lord, I'll stand firm, though some may criticize
For whose opinion matters, if I look good in Your eyes?

Who can give me anything to take the place of You?
Who on earth can justify a love that isn't true?

So, I make my statement, on my hand and in my heart.
I know, one day, I'll hear You say I chose the better part.

The world calls this "old fashioned;" still, I'll wait— it's just a while. For Honor, Truth, and Faithfulness are never out of style.

COVENANT HEARTS™ RINGS

The Covenant Hearts™ ring or pendant (right), by Evan Trinkle, is the perfect way to symbolize purity in connection with the three great bonds in life: the individual's to Christ; the individual's to their future spouse or lifelong work, and the parent's to their children.

INSPIRATIONAL BLESSING™ COLLECTION

No longer here with me. It's comfort I seek to find. I look for you everywhere. You are always on my mind. Though I wanted to hold on, it took strength to let you go. You're forever in my heart, forever in my soul. Someday we'll meet anew. I'll share my heart again with you. But for now my wings of comfort is knowing you miss me, too.

ST. CHRISTOPHER

A large man from Palestine, he worked for a while helping travelers ford a raging river, sort of like a human ferry. One day a small child asked for his service. Perched on Christopher's shoulders, the child grew heavier and heavier as they crossed the stream. Reaching the other shore, Christopher asked him "Who are you, that you placed me in such peril. It seems I was carrying the whole world on my shoulders." The child replied "You not only carried the world, but him who made it. I am Jesus Christ the King".

The St. Christopher medal is one of the most popular saint medals worn.

FOUR WAY MEDALS

Also known as a cruciform. It is actually four medals in one: The Sacred Heart at the top (a scapular medal, with Our Lady of Mt. Carmel on the back); St. Christopher, with Our Lady of Mt. Carmel on the back); St. Christopher on the right; Miraculous at the bottom; and St. Joseph on the left. The words "I am a Catholic, please call a priest" are inscribed on the back to indicate to an emergency worker the wearer's desire for the last sacrament.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

In 1531, Mary appeared to Juan Diego in what is now Mexico City. She left a miraculous image of herself on the robe (tilma) he was wearing which survives to this day. It can be seen in the magnificent basilica in Mexico City which is visited by 20 million pilgrims per year. Scientists are unable to explain the image. The medal is a reproduction of the image on the tilma. Mexico (December 12)

ST. MICHAEL

One of the archangels, he is the very popular patron saint of policemen. His name is Hebrew for the question "Who is like God?" He is usually represented in the act of defeating the devil, recalling his battle with Lucifer, leader of the fallen angels who rebelled against God at the beginning of creation. MIRACULOUS MEDAL

Probably the most popular-selling medal of all time. In 1830, the Virgin Mary appeared to a nun named Sister (now Saint) Catherin Laboure in Paris and showed her a vision of this exact medal, front and back, which she directed to be struck and distributed. The back features an "M", surrounded by a cross, with two hearts and twelve stars.

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

Depicts the icon of the same name. One day two angels appeared to the toddler Jesus, holding in their hands the cross and the tools of the crucifixion. The child Jesus ran quickly to his mother to seek consolation. It is a very popular image among Orthodox Christians as well.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS

In 1664, Jesus appeared to Sister (now Saint) Margaret Mary Alocque while she was praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament. He showed forth his heart; surrounded by thorns, glowing with flames and surmounted by a cross. Pointing to His heart He said "Behold this heart which has loved men so!..." The medal depicts the apparition.

The Shipwreck of El Buen Consejo | 14KT GOLD AND STERLING SILVER

In 1772, El Buen Consejo - [Our Lady of] The Good Counsel - sailed from Spain, bringing 52 Franciscan missionaries and thousands of bronze religious medallions to the New World. The ship, however, wrecked in the Caribbean, off the coast of Anguilla, leaving the precious cargo on the sea floor, undisturbed for 225 years. In 1986, the treasure was discovered. These medallions are first generation replicas of the originals, offered for sale to help preserve and develop the site, in cooperation with Anguilla Maritime Research Ltd., and the government of Anguilla.

THE ROSARY

There are many beautiful forms of prayer, but few as popular as the Rosary. Though a hallmark of Catholic Christianity, the practice of counting prayers with some kind of method is ancient and widespread. Rooted in the praying of the 150 Psalms of David, early Christians, unable sometimes to memorize the Psalms, substituted the "Angelic Salutation," and the Lord's prayer instead. St. Dominic, in the 13th century, is credited with spreading the devotion far and wide. Whether moving small stones from one pocket to another, or passing knotted cords through one's fingers, or using a more formal device like a rosary or rosary bracelet on pages 145-155, or a rosary ring on page 88, the important point is to pray often, and with love.

INSPIRATIONAL BLESSINGS™ COLLECTION

By Deborah J. Birdoes

EMBRACED BY THE HEART™

In each one of us are two hugs inside, one waiting to give and one waiting to receive. This jewelry piece is dedicated to those who believe that being embraced by a family softens the aches of the day, puts love and hope back into life, and simply put, makes life a little better. I send to you my best embrace!

I'd like to give to you a gift to remember me. Where there are no spoken words, in a language you could see. I'd wrap my arms around you, today and always I'd send, An embrace to be remembered, one that would never end.

BRAGLET®

Irresistable. Adorable. Charming. Just wait until Moms and Grandmoms learn that you can put pictures of their loved ones in the ingenious back-loaded frames in the Braglet®, by Heather Reddoch.

LOVE BANGLE™

Put your and your loved one's birthstones in the Love Bangle™, by Starr Appel.

"MOM" BRACELET

The ingenious "Mom" bracelet, by Roger Bernsen, features a sturdy yet invisible clasp (you'll recognize the clasp because it's already set with a cabachon sapphire). Also notice how her most cherished name "Mom" encircles the wrist, with space to add birthstones or diamonds, now or later, in the 15 remaining "O"s. (Patent US D506,156)

FAMILY HOOK BRACELET AND CHARMS

By Mitchell Ousley

The bracelet is stocked already set with the larger imitation birthstone to represent the mother. Choose from the smaller preset imitation birthstone charms to represent the children or grand children and then "hook" them over the frame so they can dangle near the mother.

THE MOTHER'S KEY®
by Fred Stowman

Mothers have held the key to their family's hearts from the beginning, and it will remain that way until the end of time. This gift, the "Mother's Key," is merely an acknowledgment of that fact.

The heart-shaped stone (set in the handle of the key) represents your heart and the way you love and care for your husband and children. A square stone is set at the end of the key, representing your husband and the strength that he brings to the family. From your love for your husband and his love for you, come the children. Their birthstones tell the month that God gave your children to you both as His special gift.

This unique piece of jewelry is being given to you for one reason; your husband and your children love you very much. Possession of this key proves that you truly do hold the key to their hearts.

Card and lovely explanation comes with each Mother's Key®

RINGS FOR MOTHER

Stuller's Family Jewelry Program is great! Help your customer choose any style pendant or ring on pages 188 to 202, then tell us which imitation or genuine birthstones you would like us to set. We'll carefully select the stones to match the ring, size the ring to the correct finger size, professionally set the stones and ship the ring to you in just four working days.

If you are not completely satisfied with your merchandise, returns or exchanges can be made within 30 days. Remember to:

- 1 return items in their original envelopes and gift boxes, if applicable.
- 2 include the perforated Merchandise Return and Reorder Form from your invoice, with instructions; and
- 3 package the merchandise securely, address to the attention of Customer Services, and ship insured.

Items special ordered or made to your specification are non-returnable and non-cancelable. Merchandise cannot be ordered for approval, and we reserve the right to charge a 15% handling fee on such returns, or return the item to you at your expense.

General Information

- Almost all items are priced and available for purchase as they are pictured in the catalog. Family rings pictured on pages 194 to 202 are priced as finished mountings without stones. They are available as finished jewelry through Stuller Studio™.
- Some pieces are hollow in the center; they are marked as "HOLLOW". Items with a scoop back are termed "HOLLOW BACK."
- Items on pages 21, 46, 105 and 126 which are marked YGF (yellow gold filled) are 1/20 14kt gold filled.
- All earrings come with backs. Young Fashion earrings on pages 165 to 169 are priced and sold as pairs. Other earrings on pages 67 to 69 are priced as pairs, but may also be sold individually.
- All pricing is subject to change without notice.
- Jewelry is priced triple key at $1,350 gold, $25 silver and $1,700 platinum.
- Boxes and supplies on pages 217 and 218 are priced at merchant cost.
- Dimensions are given in millimeters. The first measurement is vertical; the second is horizontal. Crosses and medallions are measured without the bail. Other jewelry is measured to the outside of the piece.

Some jewelry items are cast and sold by weight. If a weight is listed (DWT), it is approximate. You will be charged for the actual weight of the piece shipped, according to the price of precious metals on the day your order ships. Weights are for 14kt finished castings. Semi-finished castings (which are tumbled, but still require polishing) are also available; they are approximately 10% heavier. To estimate the difference in weight for other karats, subtract 15% for 10kt and add 19% for 18kt. Most cast items are available in 14kt yellow gold, and in 10kt yellow, 14kt white, 18kt yellow and sometimes in platinum, as a special order.
